

Appendix C

BCcampus Collaborative Projects

IDEA	PLAN	SCAN	FRAME	BUILD	REVIEW
Respond to Expression of Interest	Plan Strategic Approach	Conduct Environmental Scan	Complete Guiding Framework	Build Learning Resource	Review Project
Hold discovery meetings & document project	Build governance groups & partnerships	Engage subject matter experts &/or working groups	Engage subject matter experts &/or working groups	Engage subject matter experts &/or working groups	Community celebrates & explores adoption
Identify copyright & licensing (OER) process	Conduct project visioning & development	Implement, analyze & complete scan reports	Develop iterative design process	Explore use of existing resources	Reflection
Begin living documented agreements	Explore language and meaning	Community contribute stories	Complete audience profiles	Bring forward community resources & networks	Conduct evaluation of service and deliverables
	Community inquiry & information sharing	Authenticate & finalize scan reports	Community invitation to provide insight & input	(re)Create new content & integrate existing	Complete project closure process
	Explore promising practice	Authenticate or revise project deliverables	(re)Develop guiding framework	Authenticate & finalize new resource
	Identify & document scan requirements	Complete copyright & licensing processes	Authenticate & finalize guiding framework	Complete copyright & licensing processes
	Conduct stakeholder analysis	Publish open reports &/or research		Publish open educational resources

Collaborative Leadership is:

purpose-driven, strategic, evidence-based, accountable and transparent.

BCcampus Collaborative Project Framework for the Indigenization Project (2016-17). Special thanks to the Indigenization Project Steering Committee for their input into this framework. This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.