

SLOTS! Creating simple, collaborative WordPress sites for your teaching

September 3, 2020 @ 11:00 am – 12:00 pm

BCcampus hosted a webinar on SLOTS, a simple tool for creating a collaborative website that you and your students can contribute to. SLOTS are freely available to BCPSE faculty and students via the OpenETC.

This webinar explained:

1. What a SLOT is
2. How to set one up in 10 minutes or less
3. Examples of how they are being used in B.C. higher ed

Facilitators:

Brian Lamb is Director, Learning Technology & Innovation, Open Learning, Thompson Rivers University. TRU was where SLOTS were born. He blogs at <https://abject.ca>

Tannis Morgan is Advisor, Learning and Teaching at BCcampus. She, along, with Brian, is one of the cofounders of the OpenETC
